

CANDIDATE PRESENTATION

Litigation Attorney

ANONYMIZED EXCERPT FROM A REAL PRESENTATION

Identifying details omitted. This is a past example, not an available candidate.

Relevant experience

Drafted orders, briefs, and memorandums; prepared case summaries; and provided direct support during bench and jury trials.

Motion drafting across civil and criminal matters.

Motivation for a move

Seeking a firm where they can expand deposition skills, increase courtroom responsibility, and progress toward first-chair trial counsel.

Culture and work style

Driven by courtroom growth, with a desire for greater trial access and a long-term practice.

Looking for a firm where they can develop skills and build a career.

In the full client presentation

Role fit, compensation target, interview availability, employment history, and résumé. References and additional checks can be included as agreed.